Content 1

In this module you discuss your work and professional development with other (exchange) students. In this way you learn about intercultural differences in arts, both in terms of ways of working as in the resulting work. At the same time you learn to position yourself and your work in a broader international perspective.

This module also supports you in your exchange study program at HKU. You reflect on your progress and development.

Learning objectives

In this module you will learn:

1. to communicate about your work with students from different backgrounds
2. to position your work from an international perspective
3. to reflect on your professional development in an international context
