

Eisen praktisch toelatingsexamen Bachelor of Music

Musician 3.0

Home assignment

The home assignment consists of the following parts:

Personal pitch (2 minutes)

Introduce yourself by stating your name, where you live, which instrument(s) you are auditioning for, and your age. Please speak slowly and clearly. Tell us why you want to study Musician 3.0 and why we should accept you.

Performance (2 minutes)

We ask you to present yourself in 2 minutes of music on your instrument of choice, giving us a good sense of your experience and skill level. Show us you are creative!

- Two of your own works/compositions/tracks. These can be cd-recordings, YouTube videos, written scores, mp3s, and so on. Anything you can use to show us who you are and what you stand for.

- Motivation letter. The motivation letter is an assignment inviting you to reflect on yourself:

write a letter to your study coach as if your first year at school is already behind you.

'What have I learned/set in motion? Why did it go exactly the way I imagined it would? What did I do to make it possible? ('Dear, yesterday I passed for my first year....', etc.). Limit yourself to one sheet of A4 paper.

- Curriculum Vitae. In your resume you describe experiences relevant to our bachelor program's profile. E.g. any other courses you took, your experience in a band or ensemble, your own website, a Facebook/Myspace/YouTube account etc.

Good Luck!
